

Questions asked

1. Where should the logo be displayed? It should redirect to the main page?
2. On the main page how many pictures should be displayed?
3. The search bar should show history? The suggestions should be made by the most sought-after products? When the user starts typing a word in the text box it should suggest words that match the typed keyword?
4. What payment methods are available? What type of credit card?
5. The payment should be made in the local currency of the specific country?
6. Are all the payment methods available in each country?
7. When changing the country, the products from the cart are still available?
8. When the user chooses a certain country, will he be redirected to another site specific to that chosen country?
9. The options from "My Account" will be available for all countries?
10. What language will be the default for each country?
11. Delivery is available for all countries or only for selected countries by the client?
12. The account should have the option "Remember me"?
13. How will the user agree to "Terms and conditions"? By clicking a check box or by continuing to create an account?
14. Will the transactions be secure? Using what?
15. What options will the pictures have?
16. Should the user receive a reminder if a product is for a long time in the cart?
17. When creating an account, can the user register with Facebook, or Instagram? What about login?
18. When registering, the user will receive an email for validation?
19. How many characters should the password have? It should have letters (uppercase, lowercase), numbers, or special characters?
20. Does the password have the option "hide" or "show"?
21. If an invalid email, name, last name, or password is entered should a message appear?
22. When writing the name in the login section, should be a customized option like autofill?
23. How many characters should the name and last name have? What type of characters?
24. Mandatory fields should be marked? (login, delivery address, register)
25. Can products be added to the wishlist and cart without being logged in?
26. "My Account" should load on a new page or it will be shown in the menu bar?
27. "Sign up", "Perfumes club", "Information of interests", "Legal information", "Rating and trust", "Countries", "Methods of payment", and "Download the app" should appear at the bottom of each redirected page?
28. With what OS or browser should the website be compatible?
29. When opting for "Sign-up for the newsletter" what information is needed?
30. How many advertisements should be on the main page?
31. For "Invite and win" what information is needed?
32. For "beauty profile" what information is needed?
33. The order can be placed by phone? Is it available for all countries?
34. If the connection is lost, the items from the cart and wishlist will still be available?
35. Items stock should be visible to the user?
36. The user should have the option for the delivery address to be different from the billing address?

